

ABOUT THE BAND

Asteria Jazz Collective is a genre-blending ensemble pushing the boundaries of contemporary jazz. Seamlessly fusing modern jazz, Bossa Nova grooves, and expressive improvisation. Asteria invites listeners into a sonic experience that is both deeply emotive and rhythmically charged. Rooted in the jazz tradition but unafraid to innovate, Asteria explores soundscapes that connect the cerebral with the soulful.

Formed by a collective of seasoned jazz musicians with a shared passion for exploration, Asteria draws on influences from Sade to Billie Holiday, Haley Reinhart to Juliet London while retaining a unique voice that is unmistakably their own.

MUSIC STYLE / GENRE

Contemporary Jazz

Cool Jazz

Bossa Nova Jazz

Latin Jazz

Asteria's sound is marked by rich harmonic textures, dynamic rhythmic interplay, and melodies that linger long after the last note. Whether delivering an intimate ballad or an electrifying uptempo piece, the band always brings a compelling narrative through sound.
